THE WEEK IN ASTORIA SOCIETY

All items of social or personal nature will please be sent to Miss Alert, the Astorian office. Phone Main 601. No communication will be received later than 10 o'clock Saturday morning, except in case of an event occurring later than that time.

The Good Fellowship Club of the L. O. T. M. met socially with Dr. N. S. Vernon at her residence on Exchange street on Friday evening.

Miss Lena Smith entertained the young ladies of the Tankabachee Club and the members of the Young Men's League of the Presbyterian Church on Thursday evening of this week at her home on Seventh street. About 50 were in attendance. During the evening the young people engaged in a spirited spelling match in which the young men were successful. Other games were played and some excellent music rendered. Luncheon was served and all present spent an enjoyable evening.

Miss Margaret Higgins, Grace Stokes, Nan and Bess Reed of this city; Miss Mabel Taylor of Flavel, and Messrs. Stokes, Higgins and McLeod attended a party given last night at Fort Stevens by Captain and Mrs. Willis.

The members of the Friday Afternoon Club were entertained by Mrs. E. W. Tallant this week at her home on Grand avenue.

Mrs. Robert Carruthers charmingly entertained the members of the Thursday Afternoon Euchre Club at her home on Exchange street. The lucky prize-winners on this occasion were Mrs. R. E. Howes, and Mrs. M. T. Brooks.

The elegant home of Mrs. C. S. Brown was the scene on Friday night of a delightful "Social Evening" given by the Ladies' Guild of Grace Episcopal Church. There was a large attendance of Guild members and friends and the evening proved one of pleasure. An entertaining musical program was rendered as follows: Miss Alwina Kirchoff, piano solo; Mrs. B. Van Dusen, vocal solo; Miss Maude Van Dusen, piano solo; Miss Bess Reed, vocal solo; Mrs. Frank Spittle, vocal solo; piano duet by the Misses Alwina and Pauline Kirchoff; Rev. W. S. Short, vocal solo.

Miss Nellie Larsen gave a charming little birthday party on Saturday afternoon to a number of invited friends, the occasion being her eleventh birthday. The afternoon was spent in playing games and various amusements. Dainty refreshments were served which the little folks enjoyed very much, and they all joined in wishing their friend many happy returns of the day. Little Miss Larsen received many pretty presents from her guests. Following is a list of those present: Elizabeth Hirsch, Ethel Christensen, Margaret Barry, Hulda Mageman, Grace Goodell, Ruby and Pearl Gimre, Virginia and Henrietta Poulson, Helen Gray, Pauline Harris, Lydia Kaboth, Lillie Hankins, Alice Rarick, Gertrude Wedekin and Mildred Copeland.

Mrs. Nelson Troyer entertained the euchre club on Thursday afternoon.

A large and appreciative audience greeted the appearance of the "Basket Ball Club" of the High School on Friday night in the National Association hall in Uppertown, the occasion being rendering of the "Football Play" and "Rag-time Concert." Under the capable management of Miss Fanny Gregory, ably assisted by her classmates, the evenings entertainment was a decided success from start to finish and netted a handsome sum for the enterprising young women. The play, a one-act comedy entitled "Girls' Football" was written by Miss Gregory and is deserving of much praise. Twelve characters were represented in this charming bit of acting which was enthusiastically received. The hit of the evening was the character song "Don't Care" also by Miss Gregory. The different numbers on the program were all well rendered and received their meed of praise. At the close of the program the young people engaged in dancing for several hours. It is the intention of the club to arrange in the near future, for visits to Astoria, of high school organizations of other towns, to engage in debates and literary exercises.

On Thursday evening at the residence of Captain William Starr, 1705 Duane street, a very pleasant birthday party was given in honor of Mr. H. Duncan, the occasion being his 57th anniversary. The evening was spent in card-playing interspersed with vocal and instrumental music. A sumptuous supper was served which all present fully enjoyed. Mr. Duncan was the recipient of a number of handsome mementoes of the happy occasion.

The St. Agnes' Guild of the Episcopal Church held a very successful cookie sale on Saturday afternoon at Miss Crang's store on Commercial street.

C. V. Burkebile of Seattle is the week's end guest of his cousins, Mrs. A. M. Ford and Miss McCrea.

Miss Fossett entertained the members of the D. M. C. D. Club on Tuesday evening at the residence of Dr. and Mrs. J. M. Holt. The evening was pleasantly spent by those present in social converse and music.

The Assembly Club members were pleasantly entertained on Thursday evening of this week by Mrs. J. M. Holt at her home on Grand avenue and Seventeenth street. Cards were played and at the close of the game, dainty refreshments were served. Some excellent music was rendered during the evening. This club has 18 members and meets every two weeks, six-handed euchre is played and no prizes are given to the winners. Mrs. F. Fisher entertained the club at its former meeting two weeks since.

Mesdames Huden and Gregg, Miss Lillie Lewis and Messrs. A. Y. Anderson and L. Kline were the hostesses and host on Friday night at a very delightful "Whist Party" given by Gateway Social Club in the I. O. O. F. lodge rooms. About one hundred and thirty-five guests were present, twenty-nine tables being filled with players. At 10:30 o'clock the prizes were distributed. Miss Ruth Blinn and Mrs. Gordon winning the ladies' prizes and Allan Hughes and Captain Gunderson those given to the gentlemen. Refreshments consisting of delicious cake and coffee were served at the card tables. Later the floor was cleared and dancing and games were indulged in until a late hour.

The entertainment committee were ably assisted in their pleasant work by the Misses Knudsen, Lena Smith, Betsy Enberg and Mr. Younce. The score cards were dainty hand-painted, heart-shaped affairs showing an outstretched hand and a tiny playing card.

A very successful dancing party was given last night in the National Association hall in Uppertown by the Ladies' Leap Year Club. Over 100 couples joined in the dancing. Messrs. Weston, Lash and Martien had the affair in charge and all those present thoroughly enjoyed the evening. Excellent music was furnished by the Pacific orchestra, and the dancing continued until the "wee sma' hours."

Out of the Schoolroom. A schoolboy was asked to give some information in regard to the Cary sisters, the once famous New England poets, and he said of them:

"The Cary sisters were two poets who lived in Massachusetts most of the time. They went to New York, where they made many fast friends. Their fastest friend was John G. Whittier."

At the time of the Longfellow centennial, when the school children were writing so much about him, one boy wrote:

"Longfellow's poems were mostly of his own composure, but he wrote 'Tells of a Wayside Inn,' where others did the talking. He was the poet lorryett of our country and was a crackerjack when it came to real poetry."—Lippincott's.

IRISH PARLIAMENTARY PARTY.

DUBLIN, Jan. 18.—The olive branch held out at the meeting of the Irish Parliamentary party, which endorsed the National Directory of the United Irish League and expressed the opinion that the agreement recently arrived at between John Redmond and William O'Brien removed every objection that Nationalists outside of party had to rejoining to the ranks having been grasped by Mr. O'Brien and Timothy Healy and the present prospect is that the next meeting of the party will find the two anti-Redmond leaders with their followers back in the fold. Mr. O'Brien yesterday wrote Mr. Redmond welcoming for himself and Mr. Healy the motion passed by them.

The Irish Parliamentary Committee yesterday accepting the party's pledge and promising their co-operation in making the reunion of the nationalist force complete. Mr. Redmond replied that he was exceedingly gratified at the communication, saying he was sure it was the wish of every one to bury the differences of the past.
